SCOTTISH RITE FUNERAL FOR MR. MARION TRIMBLE

The Scottish Rite funeral service was conducted in West Liberty Sunday night for Marion Grant Trimble, 87, by Knights from the India Consistory of Covington, Ky.

Mr. Trimble, one of Morgan county's most respected citizens, died in the West Liberty Hospital Friday of pneumonia following a stroke. He became ill at his home on Straight Creek near Lenox. He had enjoyed good health until about two months ago.

Funeral services were held in the Potter Chapel in West Liberty Sunday night at 8:30, attended by many Masons, four Shriner and a host of relatives and friends. The service was initiated by Rev. Dallas Beuchemer who paid tribute to the fine life and example of the deceased. The service was concluded by the impressive Scottish Rite funeral ritual conducted by three Knights of the Rose Cross from the Covington Consistory. Mr. Trimble had been a Mason for many years and was a 32nd Degree Mason. This was perhaps the first time the Scottish Rite funeral service had been given in Morgan county.

The ring Mr. Trimble had received from the India Consistory when he became a member of the Scottish Rite of Masons was presented to his son, James Trimble of Ashland, who also is a Scottish Rite Mason. The son also is a 33rd degree Mason, the highest honor in Masonry.

Burial was in the family cemetery on Straight Creek.

Mr. Trimble was born on Straight Creek May 11, 1869, a son of David and Sarah Trimble. He had been a member of Highland Lodge F. & A. M. more than 50 years.

Surviving are seven children: James and Sherman Trimble and Mrs. Ralph Porter of Ashland; Mrs. Bentley Brown of Dayton, Ohio; Mrs. Verna Fanning of Dayton, Ohio; Mrs. Ezra Holbrook of New Boston, Ohio; and Floyd Trimble of Dayton, Ohio.

ANOTHER COMPANY WANTS FLINT CLAY

An agent of the Radiant Products Corporation of Canton, Ohio visited Morgan county Tuesday and Wednesday in search of flint clays with a high aluminum content.

His company produces a new type pulsating burner that produces up to 3,600 degrees of heat. The new type burners are used in open hearth furnaces to smelt the newer metals now in such great demand. Higher temperatures are required and only flint clay with a high aluminum content will withstand such high temperatures.

Some flint clays in Morgan have a fairly high aluminum content, but it is believed this type of clay is found in pockets and not consistently. The agent is continuing his search for traces of the clay here.

Two large refractory companies—Harbison-Walker and General Refractories—have been core drilling in the northwestern section of Morgan for several months to test the extent of Morgan's flint clays. These two companies have some 10,000 acres of Morgan land optioned or under lease.

It is reported they have found flint clay seams from 4 to 6 feet in thickness over a wide area in the Zag, Hickory Grove, Kellacee and Dan sections.

KIWANIANS ENJOY PICTURES, STORY OF AFRICAN HUNT

Approximately 75 Kiwanians their ladies and guests enjoyed colored pictures and a description of a trip through Europe and a big game hunt in Africa presented by Dr. Charles B. Stacy of Pineville, native of Morgan County.

The Kiwanis meeting was held in the fellowship hall of the Christian Church in order to accommodate the large crowd. A potluck dinner was served.

Dr. Stacy told of his big game hunt in Africa two years ago and illustrated it with colored slides. The program lasted about 1 1/2 hours and was described as "one of the most interesting programs" ever presented here. Photography was excellent and the colored slides showed many interesting scenes in Europe as well as Africa. Flying TWA to England, Dr. Stacy then flew to Madrid, Spain where he took colored slides of a bull fight, then to Rome and on to Cairo, Egypt and into the big game country of Africa. On his return, he stopped in Athens, Greece, Paris and in Zurich and Bern, Switzerland.

He showed slides of many interesting places and events in all the countries he visited, and gave a narration of his experiences and a description of the places and events pictured. These included the Vatican and Colosseum in Rome, the Sphinx and Great Pyramid in Egypt, Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris, and many others.

The big game hunting pictures in Africa were particularly interesting and informative. He and his companion killed buffalo, rhinos, antelopes and elephants. He told of shooting one huge elephant 15 paces away and only 10 paces away when it dropped. It had 75-pound ivory tusks. Elephants are killed only for ivory and thus only the large ones are killed, he said.

Pictures of African natives and their villages and a description of their living habits were very interesting.

Dr. Stacy, who operates the Pineville Hospital, also visited medical centers in all the countries he visited and showed pictures of some of the most interesting ones he visited.

Dr. Stacy was accompanied here by Dr. Baird of Pineville. Guests at the meeting included Mr. and Mrs. Curtis C. Stacy, Roland Stacy, Mr. and Mrs. James Randolph Perry of West Liberty; Bert Bibe of Hazard, A. J. Conners of Jeffersonville, Ind.; Atty. Edward Bach of Campton.

Two new Kiwanians attended, Clarence Black and Clay Walton. Next week's Kiwanis meeting will be in the form of a "working" at the swimming pool and playground. Kiwanians will assemble at the playground at 2 p. m. to clean and paint the swimming pool. Kiwanians will prepare a picnic supper and pin them at 6 p. m.

NEW PLAYGROUND BEING BUILT HERE

Work is progressing on a second community playground for West Liberty. The playground is located on the vacant lot belonging to Dr. Stanley Gullett adjacent to the residence of Dr. Ralph Gullett.

The playground is a community project and will be for use of everyone. Plans are to have picnic tables and ovens, shuffleboard courts, etc.

NOAH P. GREAR IN APPEAL TO VOTERS

Some few weeks ago my opponent announced through this paper that he was serving his last year of his second term as Circuit Court Clerk. I am sure that many of you will recall that his father was elected for one term immediately preceding the first time which the present Clerk served, and this office has been in his family now for a period of eighteen years.

It is my firm belief that any public office does not belong to any individual or family and that certainly eighteen years is sufficient time for any officeholder and I believe it is time for a change.

Your vote and efforts on my behalf will be appreciated.

Elder and Mrs. Addie Ferguson of Moon were our Sunday guests. They said there had been considerable objections for a continuation of the Ferguson-Hill and Blanton homecoming at the Primitive Baptist church at Relief on the fourth Sunday in September.

That, on account of a number of good citizens refusing to help in preparations of the dinner to feed the large crowds attending, the burden is too great for a few to supply the demand. This only applies to the Ferguson—and the Hills and Blantons can go ahead if they so desire.—R. H. Ferguson, Master of Ceremonies.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH NOTES

(By Mrs. W. H. Wells)

The attendance at the revival services being held with the Rev. Jim Seale of Pikeville as Evangelist has been most gratifying. Rev. Seale has been bringing fine messages each evening. He is a forceful earnest speaker and we are sorry that Friday evening will be his last message to us. We hope when he comes again it will be for a longer stay.

On Thursday evening there will be an observance of The Lords Supper. Gary Elam will bring the message and Mrs. Elmer Anderson will read the story. The audience will be dismissed with the singing of the last song.

At 6:30 Sunday evening our youth will go to White Oak. A pantomime, "The Old Rugged Cross," will be given at this meeting.

On Easter Sunday morning at 7 o'clock all the churches of Morgan county will meet at the

LETTERS TO

INTERESTED IN GUNSMITHS

The Courier—For a number of years I have been doing research work on the Kentucky gunsmiths and have names and information on several hundred.

In a recent conversation with M. E. Taylor, he informed me you were well versed in the history of your locality. Should you have any names of early Kentucky gunsmiths of your part of the state or information on same would appreciate having it.

For many years I have been with the Federal Land Bank here in the city and I am a life member of the Kentucky Historical Society. I also belong to the Filson Club here in Louisville.

The Courier—Please find enclosed payment for subscription to your paper, which I would like to have sent to my father J. M. Perry, who resides at 408 South Ave. B, Washington, Iowa.

Father and mother are both from old pioneer Kentucky families—born and reared in West Liberty, and I am sure that they will find much enjoyment in reading again about old friends and acquaintances still residing in and around West Liberty.

Father will be 88 in August. His father was Edmund B. Perry, son of Thomas D. Perry—both of Morgan county. His mother was Evalena Gardner of Hazel Green before her marriage.

Mother was Emma Oldfield, daughter of Joseph Greenville Oldfield who resides near Mize. Her mother was Esther DeBuck before her marriage.

The Courier—I suppose my subscription has expired by this time, so I am sending you a check. Don't want to miss one copy, as I have so many good friends in Morgan. I always look forward to the paper to see what has happened to the people.

MORE ABOUT RIDDLE

The Courier I sure enjoyed the riddle. The great fish God prepared to swallow Jonah had to be the answer. Adam named all animals and living creatures. The whale or fish was made to carry out God's plan. Fish do not have legs, arms or feet. The soul put in the fish was Jonah, then Jonah was vomited up by the fish.

Of course then the fish never knew anymore of Jonah. All creatures are obedient to the instinct God gives them. Fish or whales travel in water; the only time they appear on land (or earth) is when caught by man. Of course, it takes death to get the oil.

A fish or whale knows nothing of death, happiness, heaven or hell. They can't believe the scriptures; they have no reason, no fear of death.

The name surely is in the Old Testament in the book of Jonah. It would be strange indeed if we did not find the name.

It could not possibly be dust as the earth is dust itself, and this being seldom comes to earth. Dust does not roam from pole to pole only, of course, if it is referred to people, but they are always on earth—at times anyway. Humans are seldom constantly at sea, excepting a few. I think humans would fear hell or death and would prefer heaven.

The Courier I am enjoying the Courier so much. It was sent to us (mother and I) as a gift and it really has given us a lot of enjoyment.

I was born near Kellace, and went to the fifth grade at the Payton school. I have many happy memories of my schooldays there. I left there in 1926 with my parents, Curt and Lula Mays, and my younger sister and brother. We were in Missouri ten years, where my afflicted sister passed away in 1931. We came to Colorado in 1936 for my father's health. He went to live with the Lord April 28, 1956. My brother is married and has three children and lives in Houston, Texas. I care for my mother. She has been a sem-invalid the last twenty years. I hope someday I can visit Morgan county before all that I remember is gone. I wonder how many of my schoolmates remember me. I had a good pal, Erma Hasty, Joe Millard and Marybelle Hasty's daughter. I wonder where she lives and what her name is now. I would like to hear from her. I am sure there has been so many changes that I would not recognize anyone there. We enjoy the wonderful climate here. The summers are delightful. I love the mountains here, the Royal Gorge bridge, the highest bridge in the world, is only thirteen miles from us. The State prison is in Canon City. I well remember the Licking River. Our house was on a hill overlooking old Licking. My father used to cut lumber and make a raft of logs and take them down the river to the mill and sell them.

Sincerely,
Miss Lou Mays

The Courier Would you please send the remainder of my copy of the Licking Valley Courier to the following address: 3826 Butternut Street, East Chicago, Indiana.

Before closing I would like to compliment you on your interesting paper. Being a native of Morgan County and a young working girl away from home I find it most enjoyable to read of the latest happenings around the district. Keep up the good work.

Sincerely,
Sophrona Smith

THE COUNTY WIDE EASTER SERVICE AT WEST LIBERTY

The Courier I have been a resident of Morgan County for more than half a century. I have probably attended more Sunday school, Church and Easter Services in West Liberty than any man residing here with the possible exception of Reverend Harlan Murphy.

I made the above statement that I may show some qualification to make a reasonably accurate appraisal of the Morgan County Wide Easter Service conducted upon the high school grounds at dawn on Easter Sunday, April 21, 1957. I cannot truly express my reaction in any less moderate word than to say that it was wonderful. There were probably 400 people in attendance, coming as they did from many communities in Morgan County.

This service was sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of West Liberty who helped with the Ministerial Association, and they certainly did a splendid service in arranging the program and advertising the meeting. The tempo of the service was set by the High School Band under the direction of Mrs. Betty Jo Stamper. They played softly two beautiful numbers with much skill. Reverend James A. Norsworthy of the West Liberty Methodist Church gave the invocation with his usual earnestness. The choir under the direction of Mrs. Paul L. Reed with Mrs. Rosaline Enrick at the piano led the singing with the stirring Easter hymn, "He Lives." The lyrics were copied in the program so that the entire group joined in the singing of this grand old hymn. After a short number by the band Rev. J. Ryan Nevius with a clear audible voice and much feeling read that dramatic recording of the Resurrection found in St. Mark. The message of the occasion was delivered by Rev. Orus Rupe of the Ezel Presbyterian Church. He used the subject of the message, "Facing the Dawn." The selection was most appropriate for the occasion. It carried thoughts, application and meaning in a manner new to many of us. The benediction was then given by Rev. Glen DesJardins of the Woodbend Mission Church. It was a fitting close to a wonderful service.

While each and all those on the program did their part well, the one thing that stands out high in my estimation and so effective was the deep interest and quiet reverence shown by the entire congregation from the beginning of the program to the end.

Let us all hope that there will be many more County Wide Easter Services of Morgan County. "Facing the Dawn" gives much promise and great hope of a better day."

COFFEE MAKES STATEMENT

TO THE VOTERS OF
MORGAN COUNTY—

Sometime ago I announced through the columns of this newspaper that I would be a candidate for the office of tax commissioner. I intended to follow later with a statement, and am now so doing.

I hope you will pardon me if I depart from the conventional appeal and ask you to resolve the issue of my candidacy on measures that I deem and I hope you deem more important.

I could tell you that I am a veteran of World War II and three of my brothers also are veterans of the same. I could further add that my oldest brother in honor of whom our American Legion Post is named was the first soldier killed from Morgan County in World War I. I could add I taught school for a number of years, passed an examination to qualify as a candidate for this office.

I could tell you I am related to probably as many people as any candidate in the field, all of which would not make me any better nor any worse official.

However, if you think me capable, if you think I will be courteous and considerate, if you think I am a man you could talk to and who would know you after the votes are counted, then on these grounds I whole heartedly and earnestly solicit your vote and influence.

JEPHTHA SCHOOL ON TOUR

Pupils of the Jephtha school left Friday morning to make a tour of Lexington and Frankfort. None of the children in the school had ever been to either of these two cities.

The trip is being sponsored by the ODO Club of Louisville, and Mrs. Lula Tullers called Wednesday night and told them that a check of fifty dollars was being mailed for their expenses to make the trip.

The ODO Club has sponsored this school for several years, and members of the club have visited the school in the past.

Warren Robbins and a number of the parents accompanied them with Mrs. Cecil Day, teacher.

The children will visit the Henry Clay monument in the Lexington Cemetery and visit the Lexington airport and both the new and old capital buildings.

The children had been planning the visit for sometime and had saved about $30. However, this was not enough for the trip and when they received the message from Mrs. Tullers that $50 more was being sent the children they jumped with joy.

HUNT JUDGES' PICTURES

The Floyd County Bar Assofound in Morgan county since the territory that comprises Morgan was a part of Floyd until 1822.

Floyd was established as a co-county in 1800 and Morgan in 1822.
